

Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S. Bach Competition

This competition is for string players between 16 and 30 years of age.
For the initial screening round, candidates will perform two contrasting movements of any piece composed by J. S. Bach for unaccompanied string instrument.
(Partitas, Sonatas or Suites)

Finalists will perform the complete work at the Staller Center Recital Hall, Stony Brook University on Tuesday, Dec 3, 2:00 pm.

Calendar:

Submission deadline: October 20, 2019

Finalists announced: November 4, 2019

Finals: December 3, 2019

The finals will be held on Tuesday, Dec 3, 2:00 pm-4:30 pm
at the Staller Center Recital Hall, Stony Brook University.
The event will be open to the general public free of charge.

Prizes:

The winner will receive a cash prize of $5,000 and will perform at the first annual Island Symphony Bach Festival, Sunday January 26, 2020 at St. Peter's By-the-Sea Episcopal Church, Bay Shore, NY.

Second Place Prize: $500
(snow date Sunday February 2, 2020)

Jurors:

Lawrence Dutton, violist; Colin Carr, cellist; Matthew Lipman, violist;
Yeou-Cheng Ma, violinist/violist; Wolfram Koessel, cellist

For complete information about the competition including submission form, visit:
www.jsbachcompetition.org